PROFILE

I am a Production Manager with sixteen years experience in film production. I took a break from screen work when I relocated to Northern Rivers NSW for the last 4 years, I returned to university to complete my Dip Ed and became a community preschool teacher launching and managing their bush kindy working with disadvantaged families. Two floods later and now I've returned home, am building a new house in Armstrong Creek and am keen-as to reconnect with my film crew buddies! Over the years I've worked as a television producer for an advertising agency, assistant director on feature films, television pilots and film clips and production manager on hundreds of local and international television commercials throughout Australia.

People love working with me because I'm thorough and do it with a smile. I like to think of myself as a sort of stress ball - there's always time for a laugh and this makes everybody more productive. I'm also a bit of a computer wiz. A career highlight was travelling around the world, managing a TVC for Guilty and Medibank travel insurance.

Here's a small selection of fun projects I've worked on:

I acknowledge the Wadawurrung and Wurundjeri people as the traditional owners of the land on which I live and work. Sovereignty was never ceded.
